

DR Picks 12 Winners – Out by 1

BS Holds Lead but is joined by KS

Effective date: 2013-09-30

In a very impressive show of picking DR picks 12 winners to move from 7th place last week to a tie for second place this week, out by 1 game from the front runners. BS has nine winners which is his first week under at least 10 wins this year. His nine wins allows KS with 10 wins to secure a tie for first place. KS continues his streak of 10+ wins in a week to six weeks going back to last year.

CM continues his high level of play with 11 wins, good enough for a second place tie. With his 11 wins CM won his career 2,100 game. Equally impressive was eight-time champion SS with 11 wins moving him into fifth place from 10th place last week. SS dazzled the group with a BUF over BAL at BAL Loner Pick. KB showing some life with 10 wins. KB has 30 wins over the last three weeks (KS Leads with 32 wins) to move within four games of first. KB picks a Loner Pick with CLE over CIN.

MS 11 wins moves him into 14th place on the all-time winners list. LF, our defending champ, perhaps took some blows to the head during the off season as he continues his struggles to figure out who to pick. LF's best week this season was Week 2 with nine wins. And finally, the rookie is playing like a rookie.
